THE PARISH REGISTERS

OF

CUCKFIELD, SUSSEX.

1598—1699.

EDITED BY

W. C. RENSHAW, K.C.

ISSUED TO SUBSCRIBERS OF THE SUSSEX RECORD SOCIETY AS AN EXTRA VOLUME FOR THE YEAR 1911.

PREFACE.

---

THE existing Registers of Cuckfield commence with the year 1598. In the oldest of them is a note to the effect that "Marriages, Christenings, and Burials registered in the old register bookes before this" began in the year 1538, and ran to 1597. These older register books are traditionally supposed to have been appropriated by Sir William Burrell, and they are not now to be found.

The ensuing entries are extracted from the two oldest of the existing registers. The first few pages in the earlier of these contain a list of the books belonging to the parish on 25 June 1625; a note that John Patching, the parish clerk, began 26 June 1603 to write in the register; the above reference to the lost register books; and a memorial of the Rev. Mr. Waterhouse, a vicar who died in 1607, which was printed at the instance of the late Canon Cooper, the last vicar, in Vol. 44 of Suss. Arch. Coll., p. 26.

The Society is much indebted to Miss Cooper, the late Canon's daughter, for having in his lifetime transcribed, and for now allowing the use of, the following entries; and she and Mr. Renshaw, K.C., have collaborated in preparing the Work for the press, and verifying everything that was doubtful. The volume is published with the assent of the Rev. R. Fisher, the present vicar, who has kindly permitted access to the registers.
